

Moran Names Travis Murphy District Director

Natoma Native to Oversee Moran's State Operations

SALINA - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced he has hired Travis Murphy as director of his Kansas offices. Murphy is a native of Natoma.

Murphy previously served as both press secretary and chief of staff for Moran before leaving Moran's office in 2005 to work on a master's degree in public administration at Arizona State University. Murphy received his bachelor's degree from Kansas State University.

As district director, Murphy will oversee Moran's district staff and office operations in the Hays, Hutchinson and Salina offices.

Travis is the son of Mark and Judy Murphy of Hays.

###